A BANKRUPTCY CASE.

Before the Chief Justice, Sir Francis Piggett, at the Bankruptcy Court, this morning, Mr J. Scott Harston, who appeared for the Official Receiver, Mr G. H. Wakeman, moved that the sale and assignment by the debtor, S. Allana, on November 2, of the business carried on by the debtor under the style of S. E. Allana and Co., at No. 1A D'Aguilas Street, with the stock-intrade, book and other debts and the goodwill thereof to Ahamed Marican for $12,600, by instalments of $400 per month, be set aside on the ground that the same was a conveyance or assignment of the property of the debtor to a trustee for the benefit of his creditors generally within the meanof sub-section A of Section 3 of the Bankruptcy Ordinance of 1891, or a fraudulent conveyance, gift, delivery or transfer of the property of the debtor within the meaning of sub-section B of Section 3 of the Bankruptcy Ordinance, and therefore void as an act of bankruptcy and for a declaration that the business, etc., form the part of the estate the debtor.

Mr Hastings represented the purchaser Electric Radiators of the business, and took a preliminary objection that the matter did not come within the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court. It had no power to set aside the assignment on the ground of its being a fraudulent transaction unless it exercised an equitable jurisdiction which he contended that court could not do. The proper course for the Official Receiver would have been to have brought an action in the Supreme Court, as his client had nothing whatever to do with the bankruptcy procoedings. He was merely a purchaser and not amenable to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court, being a stranger to the bankruptcy proceedings.

His Lordship :- If he had never come into the court he would be a stranger, but the document has come into court and is the motion to be set aside on account of that? I cannot see that he is a stranger. Mr Hastings:—He never appeared before the Bankruptcy Court and therefore he is a stranger. This is the first time he has been brought into the matter.

Mr Hastings further contended that the Ordinance did not apply. In England there was a special provision, and the then Hongkong legislators in their wisdom had copied all the clauses and omitted that particular one. Why, he did not know.

His Lordship:—I wish to point out that it ought to be in. (To Mr Harston.) Would you object to this question of fraud being tried by a jury?

"THE BABES IN THE WOOD."

There was a considerable attendance at the Theatre Royal on Saturday evening when the Bijou Troubadours gave another pleasing performance of "The Babes in the Wood." The songs and dancing of the juveniles met with a most hearty reception and the applause accorded to the artistes was spontaneous. Throughout the evening the audience was kept in continual

H. O. A., 4; E. NAVAL YARD, O. This game on the Naval Grour or Saturday, attracted considerable attention. From the very commencement play was of a fast order, and generally the soldiers were the more aggressive side. Several of their early attacks looked dangerous and would certainly have proved fatal to their opponents had it not been for the sound resistance offered by Joughin, the right back. The first corner obtained by the military men was almost turned to material advantage when Bellis headed just over the bar. On another occasion one of the Naval backs mis kicked and the custodian had all his work cut out to keep the leather out. Soon another corner fell to the soldiers, and this time the Naval goalie was called upon to fist out from Bellis. This same player and Watts had splendid openings shortly after this but they failed to turn them to account. Only on one or two occasions did the Yarders make a spasmodic incursion into the R. G. A. territory and even then they were seldom dangerous. Once, however, they obtained a corner the result of which was that Beasley, the Army keeper, was called upon to use his hands. The R.G.A. soon returned to the attack and as the result of a pretty movement Watts was successful in scoring with a fine low shot which gave the Naval custodian no time came a few minutes afterwards. The second moiety was pretty much a reflection of the first, in that the R.G.A. men had the most of matters. Not long after the re-opening Hatton sent the ball nicely in front of goal, and after an exciting. scramble Watts managed to rush it through, Lhie was the R.G.A.'s third point. Then the Naval forwards tried their luck, and had not Beasley grasped the danger of the situation and left his charge to clear, there would probably have been a goal to Dalziell's credit. While under severe on the fourth and last goal of the match. After this Bellis, Watts and Nash were all but through on different occasions, whilst once Coomb, at the other end, had the goal at his mercy but only sent in a feeble shot which was easily disposed of.

BUFFS, 7; v. B.O.C., 0. The meeting of the Buffs and the B.O.C. on the Military Ground provided what was little else than shooting practice for the soldiers, who bagged four goals in the opening half and a trio in the second moiety. There was a fairly large crowd present, and the Boys' Own put up a plucky April, fight against great odds. Football Notes.

Interest in football matters this past week has not alone been concentrated on League activities, for the draws for the Shield Competition have provided plenty of material for comment.

The first round should produce some spirited games, and practically the only unfortunate feature associated with it is the fact that the two teams entered from the Buffs Regiment have been pitted one against the other. However, this will give the Buffs a sure entry to the next round, TOTIOE is hereby fgiven that the and the other favourites are H. M. S. Kent. H. M. S. ber of goals by which they would overcome their opponents. So a hare one-to-nil victory was quite unlooked for.

It appears that the R.E. were not at full strength, but while this may have been so. they should have had no difficulty in overcoming the least successful team in the League. The recent form of the Sappen has been anything but impressive, and the statement made in these columnsa fortnight ago that unless a decided improvement were soon witnessed in their play they would have difficulty in keeping among the leading teams, seems to have been well warranted.

The other League game was that between the Y.M.C.A. and the Lusitano. The result was an expected win for the Saints. who were thus able to break the succession of defeats from which they have recently suffered. Their record, however, still could be made to read a little better. But On View from Monday, the 18th Jan., perhaps they are husbanding their strength for the Shield competition. Who can tell?

> It is early in the day to attempt any forecasts for the second round, but it does not need much investigation to perceive that some exceptionally keen tussles will be seen before the date on which these matches are to end--February 10th. For instance, there will be one of the Buffs teams against the R.G.A., probably the Kents facing the Y. M. C. A., the King Alfred trying conclusions with the winners of the R. E. v. Hongkong match, and possibly the Naval Yarders against the Bedfords. Oh yes, we shall have exciting times later on.

Comment has rightly been made in reference to the fact that a cable has been sent to Shanghai to the effect that Hongkong is unable to raise a team to send up for the proposed inter-port match during the Chinese New Year holidays. As far as can be gathered, this decision was forwarded by the Hongkong Football Club, which appear to have had the matter in band.

No-one would object if this simply meant that the Club had made it quite clear that they were only speaking for themselves. but when the impression is given that a side could not be picked up in the Colony. then it is high time that a protest was

The Hongkong Club should bear in mind that all the football talent is not contained in its ranks and that they are by no mean, the be-all or the end-all of the Association Code in the Colony. In fact, it would be quite an easy task to get together a side from the military teams alone which would give them a taste of the bitters of defeat.

For all interport games the whole Colony should be scoured so as to secure absolutely the best representation possible from a playing point of view. Talent and talent alone should be the circumstance to qualify for a position in the team. If this were carried into effect we should seldom, if ever, have reason to fear defeat, at least as far as Association is concerned, for the very fact that we have such a number of | Musk Deer, -Wong Keng Service teams in our midst is of the Hare, Shanghal, -Tu Chal As supplied to the principal greatest possible advantage. Because in Partridge, -Che Kauthe past the arranging of these fixtures has been in the hands of the Hongkong Club is no reason why it should be so in Pigeons, Canton,—Pak Kup the future.

Of Saturday's Longue encounters the THE Undersigned having been appointed most interesting was that of the Naval AGENTS of the above Company, are Yard v. R.G.A. It was a game strenuousprepared to accept Fire and Marine Risks ly fought out, and although the soldiers. had no great difficulty in capturing the points at stake the Naval men never flagged and always put up a game fight. Their defence was pretty sound, Joughin being Teal,-Sui Ap Chal, the outstanding figure, but in the front rank their efforts were inmentably weak and ill-conceived, while the halves never got a real hold on the opposing quintette.

In contrast to the losers, the R.G.A. were strong in all departments, and they played with a refreshing vigour which seemed to suggest that, with the League | Carp,-Li Yu games half way through, they had taken on Catfish, -Chik Yu ... a new lease of life. Their attack was bright and forceful, Bellis and Watts being always in the picture, while the halves were clean and "nippy," Jones being the star man. Cuttle Fish,-Muk Yu We already know the solidity of their de- Dab, -Sa Mang Yu . fence, so reference to it is unnecessary. The Artillerymen are evidently going to make a bold bid for League Championship. Dog Flah -Tit Tu Sa

But they will have serious rivals in the Buffs, who, by defeating the B. O. C. by seven goals to none, registered their third | &cls, Yellow, -Wong Bin successive League win within eight days. Proge Tien Kai And what wins they are! These three games have yielded no less than 28 goals Garoupa, -Sek Pan .for and none against! The effect has been to make their goal average little short of sudgeon, -Pak Kup Ya phenomenal 37 goals in their favour and Berrings, - Tso Pak brace between the whole

A SIGN OF THE TIMES. The nomination of four candidates to contest the two vacant seats on Sanitary Board is, we hope, the harbinger of a revival of a better state of things in Wine required for IMMEDIATE use the public life of the Colony. Hitherto it has been frequently asserted, with all due gravity, that Hongkong's principal output, year in year out, is an abnormal variety of "slackers"; that Songs by Miss MONTEZ and and thoroughly matured, and in fine there is no civic life in the place; that public spirited men can be counted on the fingers of one hand; and that public opinion, what little there is of that precious commodity, goes for usught so far as the administration of the place is concerned. We have always considered this to be too sweeping an indictment, for of course it can not be sustained in its entirety. But after allowing for this and that and weighing the rest carefully ago passed out of the era of awadding a considerable modicum of truth will be community as a whole the proportion of for everybody. With the institution of "slackers" to be found amongst us is a system of municipal government we fairly large, Solfishness is rampant in a feel sure that many activities now almost rather unusual degree, and where there moribund would start again to life is salfishness one may look in vain for any interest to be taken in the general for the common good, and the force well-being of the common weal. We their example must inevitably have ing Gowns, Paris Models have some excellent local institutions decidedly atimulating effect upon the of a literary and musical character, yet whole community, intellectually, artis hardly one of them can be said to tically, and morally. possess a healthy vitality. What do we clothing, Boots and Shoes, hear nowadays of the Odd Volumes? DOG SHOOTING.

The Happy Valley is the home of sport in our Colony, and we look upon it as such. When we say sport, we mean sport, such as football, cricket, gol!, and also the men would have an incentive to work "sport of Kings." These, however have been recently added to, but we cannot say that the addition has in any way tended to improve or to uphold the old tradition that a true Britisher loves true sport. Any morning a policeman may now be seen in Happy Valley with a gun under his arm, securely ensconsed behind some tree, waiting for something to make its appearance. When it does appear it is in the shape of some poor dog or dogs, as the case may be. On Saturday morning one poor beast was despatched, but two shots were required before the deed was accomplished. We recognize the fact that while the training of the ponies at the Valley is in progress, it is somewhat dangerous for dogs to be allowed to scamper over the courses, but surely a British and German troops in west more humane manner of getting rid of them would be to station some coolies round the the reef in the Pulo Tujoh Straits recently. | enclosure, or particularly at the village end, where it is said these dogs come from, Corporal Russell, of the R.G.A., had armed with switches or something of that his cricket bag stolen at Happy Valley sort, and we feel sure that this would have while he was taking part in a match on the desired effect. ALLEGED INTENT TO ROB.

Chan Shui was sentenced to three years' hard labour, by Mr Justice Compertz, at the Criminal Sessions, at the Suprem Court, this morning, for assault and intent to rob at Yaumati on January 2. Prisoner pleaded guilty.

The Hon. Mr Rees Davies, K. C., Atlorney General, appeared for the Crown the office of the Crown Solicitor.

ALLEGED ROBBERY WITH VIOLENCE

Lam Tin, Chan Shun and Po Tun were placed in the dock, at the Supreme Court, this morning, before Mr Justice Gompertz, on a charge of robbery with violence and with ordinary larceny.

The Hon Mr Rees Davies, K.C., appeared for the Crown, instructed by H. L. Dennys from the Office of the Crown Solicitor.

The following were sworn in as jurors:-P. F. Nicholson, foreman; J. Lysaught. E. H. Neave, J. M. McHutchin, E. G. Smith, F. O. Day, and P. Davidson.

The Hon Attorney General said that the prisoners were charged on two counts, the first being robbery with threats and the second with ordinary larceny in a dwelling house, the distinction being that if the jury did not find prisoners guilty on the first count they would be able to bring in a verdict of guilty on the second one. The robbery, in which $92 was taken, took place on November 29 at Chun Wan in the DR. BARRACK'S MURDERERS. New Territory, some eight miles from the Shan Shui Po Police Station. The affair took place about 7 o'clock and when the police arrived there about 11 o'clock, they found the villagers greatly excited and that a number of shops had been broken into. Ten men had entered the particular shop in which the robbery took place and the first prisoner had subsequently been identified as the one who carried an are and the second and third prisoners as hav. ing been in possession of revolvers.

Evidence was then called. After retiring the jury brought in a werdict of guilty against all three prisoners on the first count, and His Lordship passed a sentence of five years' hard labour on each prisoner. His Lordship thanked the jury for their attendance.

FROM THE DIARY OF A PARSI TRAVELLER.

(Specially written for the "CHINA MAIL.") Your readers are well aware how sagacious clophants, dogs and horses are, and what a keen sense of smell and sight they possess, faculties which enable them to know their owners, friends and foes. Here is a story of an elephant and its driver, which illustrates the principle of tit-for-tat. A law there is of ancient fame. By nature's self in every land implanted, Lex talionis is it's Latin name, But if an English term be wanted, Give your next neighbour but a pat, He will give you tack as good and tell you,

This tit-for-tat, it seems, not men alone, But elephants for legal justice own. In proof of this, a story I shall tell ye, Imported from the farrous town of Delhi. An elephant that swell'd the State Of Aurungzebe, called the great, One day was taken by his driver To drink and cool him in the river : The driver on his back was seated, And, as he rode the street along, By some acquaintance in the throng, With a ripe cocoanut was treated.

A cocoanut's a pretty fruit enough, But guarded by a shell both hard and tougn;
The fellow tried and tried, Working and sweating,

Pishing and fretting, To find cut it's inside, And pick the kernel for his eating. At length, quite out of patience grown, "Who'll reach me up," he cries, "a stone, To break the plaguing shell?
But stay, I've heard a solid bone, May do, perhaps, as well."
So saying, half in earnest, half in jest,
He banged it on the forehead of his beast.

An elephant, they say, has feeling, And, full as well as we, he knows The difference between words and blows. Between horse-play and civil dealing. Use him but well and he'll do his best, And serve you faithfully and truly. But insults unprovoked, he can't digest, He will remember and repay them duly.

"To make my head an anvil," thought the Was never certainly the will of nature, So, master mine, you may repent."
Then, shaking his broad ears, away he went.
The driver took him to the water And thought no more about the matter. But elephant within his mem'ry hid it, He felt the wrong, the other only did it.

A week or two elapsed ; one market day, Again the beast and driver took the way. Through rows of shops and booths they With catables and trinkets stored.

Where coccanuts lay piled upon the board. "Ha," thought the elephant, "'tis now my turn. To show this method of nut-breaking My friend above will like to learn, Though at the cost of a head-aching"

Then in his curling trunk he took a heap, And waved it o'er his head with sudden And on the hapless driver's sconce, He laid a blow so hard and full,

It cracked the cocoanuts at once, But with them cracked the driver's skull MORAL. Young folks whenever you feel inclined To rompish sports and freedoms rough,

MR HALDANE ON INVASION FEARS.

To be repaid in kind.

Mr Haldane, Minister for War, speaking at Gullane, scouted the fears of surprise invasion. With reserves, he said, we now had a force of 320,000 regulars, and could mobilise four divisions by touching a button. The total defensive force, including Territorials, was 527,000 men.

NEW SINGAPORE IN

THE MAKING. Extensive Improvement on the Waterfront.

The veriest pessimist who makes the trip along the waterfront from Johnston's Pier to the Keppel Harbour Police Station, must acknowledge that there are some people possessed of a great deal of influence who have tremendous faith in the future of the Colony and of Singapore. From the huge trustles being built at the side of Johnston's Pier, to the great iron godowna-being erected at Keppel Harbour, just before the Police Station is reached, the whole waterfront is a scene of immense activity and development. The great engines, offerdams, substantial buildings and enormous piles of materials which crowd the ground inside 70 St John Jackson's iron fence, where there was nothing but weeds a year or two ago.

only form a very small part of the work of harbour improvement now in progress. Messrs. John Aird and Company's little toy railway is very busily engaged at Tanjong Pagar, removing earth from the site of the new basin and putting it where large warehouses will arise in the not-distant future; huge mountains of earth and rock, on the crowns of which fine residences appear to be toppling to their doom, are being carved away piecemeal, that the materials of which they are composed may be utilised where it will do vastly more good, wharves are being reconstructed and miles of the waterfront resound to the clang of iron, the whir of husy wheels and the toot of whistles -an omen of the Singapore of coming days. The work of reclaiming portions of the harbour by the side of Johnston's Pier is being found more difficult than was expected on account of the discovery of considerable quantities of rock. The big scoop shovels which are sont down to remove the bed of the harbour at cartain places can most easily remove soft materials, but when it comes to taken up huge rocks, they are not very effective. considerable portion, of the bed of the harbour off Collyas Quay, in found to be very rocky under a not very deep stratum of mud, yet the contractors do not consider the depth at which the rocks are encountered to be stafferent for daying the foundations of the new seawall, and are

TO THE ELECTORS OF HONGKONG. Hongkong, 18th January, 1909. ENTLEMEN.—I have the honour to

Come before you as a Candidate for 86 a seat on the Sanitary Board of this Colony and to solicit your kind support. As a member of the general public and a ratepayer, I am fully aware of the import- berg, San Francisco Doc. 22, and Shangance to my fellow Colonists of whatever hai Jan. 15, Mails and General.-P. M. nationality and status, of the opportunity | S. S. Co. afforded to the unofficial members of the Sanitary Board. Questions of Public Health affect us all, and legislation on Public Health matters have often a more Tungshing, for Shanghai. far reaching effect than can be anticipated by those more directly concerned in the Bourbon, for Salgon. framing of our laws. I am now in medical Lienshing, for Swatow. practice in Hongkong and anticipate making Sark, for Daluy. this my home for many years to come. I Silesia, for Shanghai. am therefore personally interested in the Amico. for Holhow. prosperity of our Colony. I consider that Haimun, for Swatow. much can be done by a member of the Shantung, for Pasuran. TO THE ELECTORS. CENTLEMEN:-Having been invited by an influential deputation to offer myself as a candidate, and having a personal desire to place my services at the disposal 84 of the Colony in any matter conducive to the coming Election. Although I have only been resident in the Colony for five years my business in the management of a large quantity of Chinese property has given me a very considerable insight into the working of the Sanitary Regulations of the Colony. While I shall support the Government in any fresh regulations they may consider necessary to the Sanitation of the Colony.
